Gary Stein discussed the ice cream social at Central park. Ted Drewes pricing is $1.40 to $1.60. He also went to Sheridan's and they are under new management/ownership. They are interested in participating in the event but their prices are 30% to 40% higher. They have an ice cream bar. Ted Drewes's won't deliver but Sheridan's will deliver. If we want Sheridan's we can try to negotiate a lower price. We would like to give Sheridan's the opportunity to sponsor since they are part of the Chesterfield community. Barry Flachsbart commented that the owners of Velvet Freeze live in Chesterfield and are involved in Chamber events. Gary Stein stated that he would talk to Sheridan's again to see if they will come down on their pricing as they may do so just for the exposure.

She is also working with Shane Mayer to get some sort of hay/carriage ride. Tricia Whelan is meeting with Stacey Morse of Chesterfield Arts to determine a dog related art project to showcase the Park such as a dog chair/sculpture and a craft that the kids could do during the event.

Tom McCarthy stated there are 16 total and they have completed four and hope to have 4-8 more done this winter and leave the remainder for next winter. Tom McCarthy stated that he didn't want to start a dugout and then get caught without the dugouts being done by March, 2013. The process involves tearing out the dugouts, moving power and water lines and then putting new dugouts in. The goal is to have all the dugouts match. Tom McCarthy stated that he is

The event went so well that they have planned a second weekend. This was by far the best year for it. It showcases softball and also gives the city the opportunity to be showcased. Darcy Capstick stated that Bandanas assisted in the Recycles Event.
